NOTE VERBALE DATED 22 JUNE 1992 FROM THE UNITED STATES MISSION TO THE UNITED NATIONS ADDRESSED TO THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

The United States Mission to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Secretary-General of the United Nations and has the honour to submit the following in accordance with paragraph 12 of Security Council resolution 757 (1992):

The United States is in full compliance with the provisions of Security Council resolution 757 (1992).

On 30 May 1992, President George Bush declared a national emergency with respect to the actions and policies of Serbia and Montenegro and blocked "Yugoslav Government" property and property of the Governments of Serbia and Montenegro which are subject to United States jurisdiction. This action, reflected in Executive Order 12808 of that date, was followed on 5 June 1992 by Executive Order 12810, entitled "Blocking Property of and Prohibiting Transactions with the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (Serbia and Montenegro)". That Order implements the full range of economic measures called for in Security Council resolution 757 (1992). The text of Executive Order 12810 is provided as an annex to this note.*

As a result of the United States action, the following have occurred:

(a) All assets of the Government of Serbia, the Government of Montenegro, the Government of the "Federal Republic of Yugoslavia", as well as assets in the name of the Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia, present in the United States were blocked as of 30 May 1992. Any such assets coming within the reach of United States jurisdiction will immediately be blocked;

(b) United States imports from Serbia and Montenegro are prohibited and activities by United States persons related to such imports are prohibited;

* Copies of Executive Orders 12808 and 12810 may be consulted in Room S-3545.

(c) United States exports of goods and services to Serbia and Montenegro and any activities by United States persons related to such exports are prohibited;

(d) Dealings by United States persons related to property originating in and exported from Serbia and Montenegro after 30 May are prohibited;

(e) Transfers or remittances of funds and other economic resources by United States persons to the Government of and persons in Serbia and Montenegro are prohibited;

(f) Aircraft that have taken off from or will land in Serbia and Montenegro may not take off from, land in, or overfly the United States;

(g) The foregoing restrictions in effect prohibit the provision by United States persons or on United States territory of engineering, maintenance and other services to aircraft registered in or operated by or on behalf of entitites in Serbia and Montenegro;

(h) Shortly before Security Council resolution 757 (1992) was adopted, the United States closed consulates of the former Yugoslavia in New York and San Francisco; the diplomats at those missions have alredy departed the United States. At the same time, the United States also expelled several military attachés affiliated with missions of the former Yugoslavia. In response to resolution 757 (1992), the United States is actively considering additional measures to reduce further staff levels at diplomatic missions and consular posts of the former Yugoslavia in the United States;

(i) The United States has taken steps to prevent the participation in sporting events on United States territory by persons or groups representing Serbia and Montenegro. Executive Order 12810 prohibits any transactions in the United States by United States persons related to participation in such events;

(j) The United States is suspending scientific and technical cooperation and cultural exchanges and visits involving persons or groups officially sponsored by or representing Serbia and Montenegro. Executive Order 12810 likewise prohibits transactions related to such activities in the United States or by United States persons.

The prohibitions contained in Executive Orders 12808 and 12810 are subject to the licensing authority of the Department of the Treasury.
